

TO: Natural Gas Roundtable Members and Friends

GUY F. CARUSO
Senior Advisor in the CSIS Energy and National Security Program and
JOHN HATLEY
Americas Vice President Ship Power for Wartsila North America

“Natural Gas and the Marine Industry – the Next Major Gas Demand Opportunity and Strategic Implications”

DATE: Thursday, September 9, 2010

TIME: Reception: Noon
Luncheon: 12:30 p.m.

PLACE: University Club
1135 16th Street, NW
Washington, DC

The Natural Gas Roundtable is pleased to announce the Thursday, September 9th luncheon will feature two guest speakers. Both will share their insight on “Natural Gas and the Marine Industry – the Next Major Gas Demand Opportunity and Strategic Implications.”

Guy F. Caruso is a senior advisor in the CSIS Energy and National Security Program. He served as Administrator, Energy Information Administration (EIA) from July 2002 to September 2008. Mr. Caruso has acquired over 40 years of energy experience, with particular emphasis on topics relating to energy markets, policy, and security.

John Hatley, Americas Vice President Ship Power for Wartsila North America, has over 30 years of combined marine experience spanning business development, project management of domestic and overseas vessel construction, owner's representation, ship operations, and vessel design.

For reservations, please contact Ella Proctor at 202-824-7207 or eproctor@aga.org by COB on Tuesday, September 7. For a member who has paid their membership dues for 2010, the luncheon fee is $40.00 per person for government and $50.00 per person for the private sector. For non-members of the Natural Gas Roundtable the luncheon fee is $70 to be paid at the door.

Also, if you have special dietary requirements, please let Ella know when you make your reservation.

Look forward to seeing you at the Roundtable.

Sincerely,

David M. Sweet
President, Natural Gas Roundtable