Program Description

On January 1, 2010, Gerry Cauley became the President and CEO of the North American Electric Reliability Corporation (NERC). In this position Mr. Cauley will be leading NERC in its role as the FERC-appointed Electric Reliability Organization (ERO) that is responsible for the development and enforcement of standards necessary for bulk power system reliability. Mr. Cauley will be presenting his vision for NERC, an overview of the current priorities NERC is facing and his thoughts on the future challenges NERC will need to address in the coming years. Mr. Cauley will take questions from attendees after his presentation.

Speaker: Gerry Cauley, President and CEO of the North American Electric Reliability Corporation (NERC)

Moderator: Barry Lawson, EBA System Reliability and Planning Committee Chair, National Rural Electric Cooperative Association (NRECA)
