CONTENTS

President’s Message ........................................................................................................ xii
Editor-in-Chief’s Page ..................................................................................................... xiv
Rubin Memoriam ........................................................................................................... xv

ARTICLES

Deregulation: Process and Procedures that Govern Agency Decisionmaking in an Era of Rollbacks ................................................................. 269
   Bethany A. Davis Noll & Denise A. Grab

Counting on Chevron? ..................................................................................................... 297
   Heidi Marie Werntz

A Constitutionally Appointed Administrative Law Judge – You “Know It When You See It” ................................................................. 359
   Steven A. Glazer

Developments in FERC Policy for Determining Return on Equity ....................... 375
   Andrea I. Sarmentero Garzón & Gerit F. Hull

Forty Years of FERC ..................................................................................................... 433
   Charles Curtis

BOOK REVIEWS

Encounters with the Aruchdruid ................................................................. 439
   Reviewed by Richard B. Miller

The Electric Battery: Charging Forward to a Low-Carbon Future ......................... 443
   Reviewed by William A. Mogel

   Reviewed by Gordon Kaiser

NOTES

The Weakest Link: The Consistent Refusal to Consider Far-Removed Indirect Effects of the Expansion of LNG Terminals................................. 449
   Kate Rhodes

Coyote Lake Rance, L.L.C. v. City of Lubbock: The Accommodation Doctrine Expanded................................................................. 473
   Ryan Gaddis
COMMITTEE REPORTS

The Reports of the Energy Bar Association Committees are published online on the EBA’s website at www.felj.org. Included in the full electronic version of the Energy Law Journal, Volume 38, No. 2, are the following reports:

- Environmental Regulation Committee
- FERC Practice Committee
- Natural Gas Committee
- Nuclear Regulation Subcommittee
- Oil & Liquids Committee
- Power Generation & Marketing Subcommittee
- State Commission Practice Committee
- System Reliability, Planning, and Security Committee