

Ari Citrin joined MVP Capital in 2012 to launch the Renewable Energy Group at MVP. He has been involved in Renewable Energy since 2006 and commands a unique background with expertise in mergers and acquisitions, structuring transactions, project finance, renewable energy development and broad renewable energy investment banking experience.

Prior to joining MVP, Ari served as the Director of Strategy and Finance for Solar Millennium, where he structured tax equity, equity and debt transactions for utility-scale solar projects. Prior to joining Solar Millennium, Ari co-founded Prosofia North America (PNA). There he lead Prosofia's entrance into the North American solar market and oversaw PNA's finance and development strategies as it aggregated a pipeline of commercial- and municipal-scale photovoltaic, biomass and landfill gas projects. Before co-founding PNA, Ari worked at RBC Capital Markets in Energy Technology Investment Banking, where he focused on IPOs, mergers and acquisitions, private placements and leveraged buyouts. During his time at MVP and RBC, Ari has advised private organizations on M&A activity and aggregate capital financings of approximately $2 billion.

Ari received a dual major in Business and Philosophy from Emory University and an MBA from UCLA Anderson School of Management.
