

Biography

Jason Freeman is a Senior Attorney for Tri-State Generation and Transmission Association, Inc. He has over 14 years of utility experience, primarily in transmission, renewable power purchase agreements, financing, and supply chain.

He joined Tri-State in 2008 after law school and has held various positions at Tri-State. Jason has provided counsel to Tri-State as part of its Responsible Energy Plan.

Jason earned his J.D. from the University of Denver and a B.A. in International Studies from Juniata College in Huntington, PA.