

Michael Jewell is the Managing Attorney of Jewell & Associates, PLLC. Licensed by the State Bar of Texas since 1989, Michael's legal practice primarily has focused on representing clients before state and federal regulatory agencies and enforcement entities on matters addressing electricity, telecommunications, and professional regulation.

In addition to his legal practice, as a seasoned government affairs professional with more than 30 years' experience in and with Texas government, Michael has served as a regulatory and legislative advocate for national and international corporations and organizations, including Able Grid Energy Solutions, Direct Energy, Enel North America, MP2 Energy, Octopus Energy, Pattern Energy, Priority Power, Reliant Energy, Toshiba, the Environmental Defense Fund, the Solar Energy Industries Association, and an international telecommunications company on issues relating to the competitive electric and telecommunications markets, as well as appropriations, business development, intellectual property, operations, professional licensing, and taxation. Michael helps shape and advocate his clients' public policy positions with state legislators, key executive officials, and state regulatory agencies, including testifying before state legislative committees.

Born in Dallas, Texas, Michael attended the University of Texas at Austin for both his undergraduate and law school education. Michael is active in a variety of organizations, including the Gulf Coast Power Association, and is a member of the Board of Directors for the Texas Conservative Coalition Research Institute and Conservative Energy Network and is member of the Advisory Board of Conservative Texans for Energy Innovation. Michael is a member of the State Bar of Texas and the Travis County Bar Association and is AV[®] Peer Review Rated Preeminent by Martindale-Hubbell[®] Law Directory.