Pursuant to Article XII of the By-Laws of the Energy Bar Association ("Association"), there is hereby chartered the Northeast Chapter of the Energy Bar Association ("Chapter"). This Charter provides for the governance of the Chapter and its relationship to the Association.

ARTICLE I

Chapter-Association Relations

Section 1. The Association has hereby chartered the Chapter in recognition of the significant number of Association members who live or work in energy law in the Northeast region of the country (i.e., the states of Connecticut, Delaware, Maine, Massachusetts, Maryland, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island and Vermont, as well as the District of Columbia), in order to better provide for those members to fully participate in the activities and enjoy the benefits of membership in the Association, and to further the purposes of the Association pursuant to its Articles of Incorporation, and to promote the mission of the Association, which is to "enhance the professional competence of those who practice and administer energy law."

Section 2. In order to achieve the purposes of the Association and the purposes for which the Chapter is hereby chartered, it is necessary to provide for close coordination of the operations of the Chapter with the operations of the Association. Therefore, the President of the Chapter shall receive advance notice of all meetings of the Board of Directors of the Association, and in such capacity shall be entitled to attend all such meetings and to participate in the deliberations at such meetings, but shall not, in such capacity, be a member of the Board of Directors of the Association. The President of the Chapter or his/her designee shall be named ex-officio members of the Association's program committee and shall be entitled to participate fully in the affairs of such committee of the Association. The President of the Association may appoint an officer or director of the Association to serve as a non-voting, ex-officio member of the Chapter.

Any Director may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Board of Directors, and such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein or, if no time is specified, at the time of acceptance thereof as determined by the Board of Directors.

Section 3. The person serving as President shall not be eligible for immediate re-election to that office, or the offices of President-Elect or Vice President. Except as provided above with respect to the President, any officer or director shall be eligible for re-election to serve in the same or a different position from the position at the expiration of his or her term. In the event the President-Elect becomes President due to that office becoming vacant during an existing term, that person shall serve for the balance of the existing term and for the succeeding term in accordance with the provisions of Section 4 below.

Section 4. The President-Elect shall succeed to the office of the President upon the expiration or vacancy of the term of the person serving as President without further action by the Nominating Committee or the membership.

ARTICLE III

It shall be his or her duty to preside at all meetings of the Chapter, to appoint all committees of the Chapter and their officers, unless otherwise provided for, and he or she shall be a member, ex-officio, of all committees.

Section 2. In the absence or disability of the President, the duties of the President shall be discharged by the President-Elect. In the absence or disability of the President and the President-Elect, the duties of the President shall be discharged by the Vice President.

In selecting candidates, the Committee on Nominations should take into consideration the Association's diversity policy, as well as the importance of geographic diversity in the chapter's officers and directors. The outgoing Secretary-Treasurer shall certify in writing the names of the officers and directors elected at the Annual Meeting to the Board of Directors of the Association.

the affairs of the Chapter. The President shall announce the creation of and appointments to
