DIVERSITY & INCLUSION

The Energy Bar Association (“EBA”) is committed to the goals of fostering an inclusive and diverse membership and increasing diversity across all levels of the Association. Attorneys and energy professionals in the energy field are welcome to join our ranks, regardless of race, creed, color, ethnicity, Native American, Alaska, or Hawaiian Native tribal membership or descentance, gender (including gender identity or expression), sexual orientation, family and marital status (including pregnancy), family responsibilities, religion, national origin, age, personal appearance, political affiliation, veterans status, disability, source of income (government, solo, corporate, firm practice), or place of residence or business (geographic diversity) and are encouraged to become active participants in the Association’s activities.

CONSENT CLAUSE

Registration and attendance at, or participation in, EBA meetings and other activities constitutes an agreement by the registrant to the use and distribution (both now and in the future) of the registrant or attendee’s image or voice in recordings, both live and on-demand, photographs, videotapes, electronic reproductions, and audiotapes of such events and activities by EBA and other third parties. Your virtual registration may include technology that monitors your activities throughout the meeting, such as session attendance and virtual booths visited.

OUR GUARANTEE

Our goal is to provide truly exceptional offerings and service, and we won't be happy until you are. If any programs, products, or services of EBA do not fulfill our promise, we will make the situation right.

REGISTRATION FEES:

EBA membership must be current to access member rates.
