

SHANNON PEPIN COLEMAN

OVERVIEW

Shannon P. Coleman is a Senior Attorney at Colonial Pipeline Company, an oil products pipeline company, where she counsels various business groups on federal energy regulatory compliance matters. Previously, Shannon worked at Liberty Utilities, a Canadian based utility holding company that owns natural gas, electric, water, and wastewater utilities throughout the United States. Shannon began her career in Washington D.C. working briefly at the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission and then as an associate at Husch Blackwell, LLP.

REPRESENTATIVE EXPERIENCE

- Counsel business development group on jurisdictional issues facing oil pipelines
- Counsel oil pipeline scheduling and operations group on regulatory matters including items such as pro-rationing policies, product loss fees, and demurrage
- Provide transactional support for potential acquisitions with a particular focus on transition issues
- Closing utility acquisitions representing over $628 Million
- Supporting the business units in their preparation for a utility acquisition closing by negotiating replacement contracts & leases, assigning and novating existing contracts, etc.
- Providing day to day support for regulated utilities on items such as bankruptcy, real estate, regulatory issues, procurement, & litigation
- Participating in the development of a utility-wide procurement policy
- Obtaining regulatory approval for the acquisition of utilities in Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, New Hampshire, Georgia, and Massachusetts
- Developing and coordinating regulatory strategy across ten regulatory jurisdictions, including the rollout of such initiatives as a money pool, consolidating employees into a single service company
- Negotiating energy procurement and hedging contracts and associated guaranties

EDUCATION

Georgetown University Law Center, JD
Syracuse University, BA

ORGANIZATIONS

- Energy Bar Association
  - Chair of the Young Lawyers Committee (2011-2012)
  - Board Member (2015-2018)
- Women's Energy Network
  - Director At Large – 2018 Board