

Conor Ward

Conor Ward is Senior Corporate Counsel at WEC Business Services LLC, where he represents the various subsidiaries of WEC Energy Group, Inc. on FERC- and NERC-related issues, including FERC's regulation of public utilities, natural gas pipelines and storage providers, and hydroelectric facilities.

Prior to joining WEC, Mr. Ward served as Senior Counsel of an independent transmission company, where he advised executives with respect to state and federal regulatory issues. Mr. Ward has also represented a variety of energy clients in private practice before state utility commissions and FERC. Mr. Ward began his career as an Attorney Advisor in the FERC's Office of the General Counsel.

Mr. Ward holds a J.D. and a M.A. from Georgetown University. He received his B.A., magna cum laude, from the University of California Riverside.