

Brett White – Vice President, Regulatory Affairs – Pine Gate Renewables, LLC

As Vice President of Regulatory Affairs for Pine Gate Renewables, LLC (“Pine Gate”), Brett White is responsible for Pine Gate’s activities with respect to international trade disputes. In particular, Brett represents Pine Gate before the U.S. International Trade Commission, United States Trade Representative, and U.S. Department of Commerce in various proceeding, including those pertaining to “Section 201 tariffs” imposed pursuant to the Trade Act of 1974 and antidumping and countervailing duty laws under the Tariff Act of 1930. Brett also oversees Pine Gate’s activities in the wholesale electricity markets as well as matters before the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (“FERC”). He has a deep understanding of wholesale energy and capacity markets, generator interconnection, and transmission planning processes.

Brett previously spent several years in private practice representing regional transmission organizations and investor-owned utilities before FERC and the federal courts. Before his time in private practice, Brett served as an Attorney-Advisor in FERC’s office of general counsel. He was also the Director of Federal Regulatory Affairs for the Edison Electric Institute. Brett is a graduate of the Vermont Law School, where he served as Editor-in-Chief of the Vermont Law Review, and of Appalachian State University. He is a resident of Washington, D.C.