

Biographical Information for Bill Staudenmaier

Bill Staudenmaier is a partner with Snell & Wilmer L.L.P. in Phoenix, Arizona, where he practices water and natural resources law. Bill specializes in acquiring and protecting water rights for industrial, agricultural, and municipal water users. He represents clients in general stream adjudications, tribal water right negotiations, transactions involving water rights, and in appellate matters in state and federal courts. Bill received his Bachelor of Science degree in forestry and soil science, with honors, from the University of Wisconsin-Madison, and graduated magna cum laude from the University of Michigan Law School.