

Maury Galbraith is the Executive Director of Colorado Electric Transmission Authority. Prior to this role, he served as the Executive Director of the Western Interstate Energy Board and an Energy Division administrator for the Oregon Public Utility Commission. Maury received a Bachelor of Science from the University of Oregon and a Master of Arts in Economics from Washington State University.