

Sharon Segner is Senior Vice President at LS Power. She has strong energy business development/ commercial experience combined with significant experience with strategic planning, regulatory policy, and public policy advancement for both national and state energy policy issues.