

Michael Goggin is Vice President at Grid Strategies LLC, where his focus includes electricity market design to enable the participation of renewable and storage resources. He has been at Grid Strategies for 5 years, and was previously at the American Wind Energy Association for 10 years. Michael holds an undergraduate degree with honors from Harvard.