FROM THE EBA PRESIDENT

NICHOLAS J. PASCALE
EBA PRESIDENT
2026 - 2027

Welcome to the 2026 EBA Energy Forum.

Thank you for joining us for this year's Forum, The Energy Frontier: Navigating the Future of Energy Through Innovation and Law. Over the next day and a half, we will explore the legal, regulatory, and business issues shaping the energy landscape through timely CLE-eligible sessions, engaging keynote conversations, and valuable opportunities to connect with colleagues across the energy community.

We are especially pleased to open the Forum on Thursday with keynote remarks from Krista Tanner, President and CEO of ITC Holdings Corp. As the leader of the nation's largest independent electricity transmission company, Krista brings a valuable perspective on the strategic choices, infrastructure needs, and market developments defining the future of electric transmission.

On Friday, we will welcome FERC General Counsel James Dawson for keynote remarks. His perspective on the Commission's current work and the evolving regulatory issues confronting the industry will be a fitting close to an exceptional program.

After Thursday's sessions, please join your colleagues for the Foundation of the Energy Law Journal's Administrative Law Judges Reception, beginning at 5:30 p.m. This special event supports the Energy Law Journal, the preeminent peer-reviewed publication of the Foundation of the Energy Law Journal, published in partnership with the University of Tulsa College of Law. If you have not yet secured a ticket, please see an EBA staff member—we would be delighted to have your company and support.

On behalf of the Board of Directors, I extend sincere thanks to our Professional Education Council leaders for their outstanding work in developing this program. Our Co-Chairs, Lamiya Rahman of Blank Rome LLP and Melinda Warner of Vinson & Elkins LLP, along with Co-Vice Chairs Nickolas Barber of Thompson Coburn LLP, Karen Bruni of Steptoe LLP, and Jeremy Medovoy of McGuireWoods LLP, have worked closely with speakers, moderators, and EBA staff to create a thoughtful and timely slate of sessions. We are deeply grateful for their leadership and dedication.

The Forum will conclude with the annual Women in Energy Lunch, featuring a fireside chat with Noha Sidhom of Viribus Fund and Julia English of McGuireWoods LLP. We are grateful to Diamond Gem Sponsor McGuireWoods LLP for founding this important event in 2016 and for its continued commitment to recognizing and advancing women throughout the energy community.

Finally, thank you to our sponsoring firms and organizations for their generous support, and to each of you for being part of this year's Forum. I look forward to seeing you throughout the program and to the conversations, ideas, and connections that will carry forward from our time together.

Sincerely,

Nicholas J. Pascale

Krista Tanner
President and CEO
ITC Holdings Corp.

Krista Tanner is President and CEO, ITC Holdings Corp. In this role, she is responsible for the strategic vision and overall business operations of ITC and its subsidiaries. She also serves on ITC's Board of Directors. Prior to this role, Ms. Tanner served as ITC's President and as Chief Business Officer. She joined ITC in 2014 as the President of ITC Midwest.

9:30 AM - 10:55 AM: GENERAL SESSION 1

Large Load Flexibility: Regulation and Innovation
Salon 4

Load growth projections, driven in large part by data centers, continue to increase. In response, federal and state policymakers are enabling - or requiring - loads to operate flexibly. FERC has directed RTOs to develop new non-firm transmission services, while state lawmakers and regulators are considering approaches such as mandatory curtailment of large loads, or expedited interconnection in exchange for flexibility commitments. Attendees will learn about the evolution in state and federal policy towards large load flexibility, with panelists from state, utility, and data center backgrounds.

- Lorig Charkoudian, Ph.D, Maryland State Delegate, Maryland General Assembly
- Dr. Davis George Moye, P.E., Senior Consultant, Rimkus Consulting Group Inc.
- Lindsay North, Director of Clean Energy Strategy, Pepco Holdings
- Gabriel Tabak, Head of Energy Policy, Verrus LLC
- Mary Yang (Moderator), Chief Operating Officer, 804 Advisory; Founder & Owner, Juni PLLC

Meet the Mentors (Senior Lawyers Council/Young Lawyers Council Meetup) - Location: Studio F
Finance, Transactions & Investment Steering Committee Meetup - Location: Studio C

11:15 AM - 12:25 PM: CONCURRENT SESSIONS

Concurrent 1A: The Cost of the Grid: Who Pays, Who Decides, and Is It Time For a Change?
Salons 5-7

The always-dicey debate over transmission cost allocation is developing new wrinkles; this panel explores old obstacles and new options to pay for the growing grid. Attendees will gain practical insights into the legal, regulatory, and policy issues shaping the next generation of transmission investment.

- Ruben Arredondo, Regulatory Counsel, Grid United
- Sophie Meyer, Director of Power Systems, Grid Strategies LLC
- John Miller, Director, Transmission Policy, Corporate Energy Buyers Association
- Christina M. Hayes (Moderator), Head of Government Affairs, GridCare

Concurrent 1B: Miracle on First St. NE, RTO Governance that Delights Everyone
Studio D

Dear Chair Swett, All I want for FERC-mas is an RTO governance structure that works for everyone. We've gathered voices from across the stakeholder process—states, transmission owners, developers, and even the RTOs themselves—to figure out if there is a miracle governance solution out there that respects the delineation of rights and authorities under the Federal Power Act, provides investor stability, ensures just and reasonable rates across markets, and maintains grid reliability.

- Joshua Macey, Professor of Law, Yale Law School
- Jodi Moskowitz, Vice President, Deputy General Counsel and RTO Strategy Officer, PSEG Services Corp.
- Kristina M. Tridico, Executive Director and Deputy General Counsel, Midcontinent Independent System Operator, Inc.
- Evan Vaughan, Executive Director, MAREC Action
- Melissa Alfano (Moderator), Senior Director of Energy Markets and Counsel, Solar Energy Industries Association

Concurrent 1C: Utility Duty to Serve and the Energy Transition
Studio E

This session will consider how utilities and the regulatory frameworks that govern them will need to change in response to changing customer energy demands – in particular, the ongoing trend from natural gas consumption to electrification.

- Tana K. Simard-Pacheco, Lead Assistant General Counsel, Xcel Energy Services Inc.
- Cole Jermyn, Senior Attorney – Clean Affordable Power, Environmental Defense Fund
- James M. Van Nostrand, Policy Director, The Future of Heat Initiative
- Hon. Radina Valova (Moderator), Commissioner, New York Public Service Commission

12:30 PM - 2:00 PM: LUNCH, PRESENTATION OF AWARDS, LIVE INTERVIEW
Salon 4

Special Event: Live Interview: Rich Heidorn Jr. (Editor Emeritus, RTO Insider) will sit down with Dr. David Patton, (President, Potomac Economics) market monitor for MISO, NYISO, ISO New England, and ERCOT.

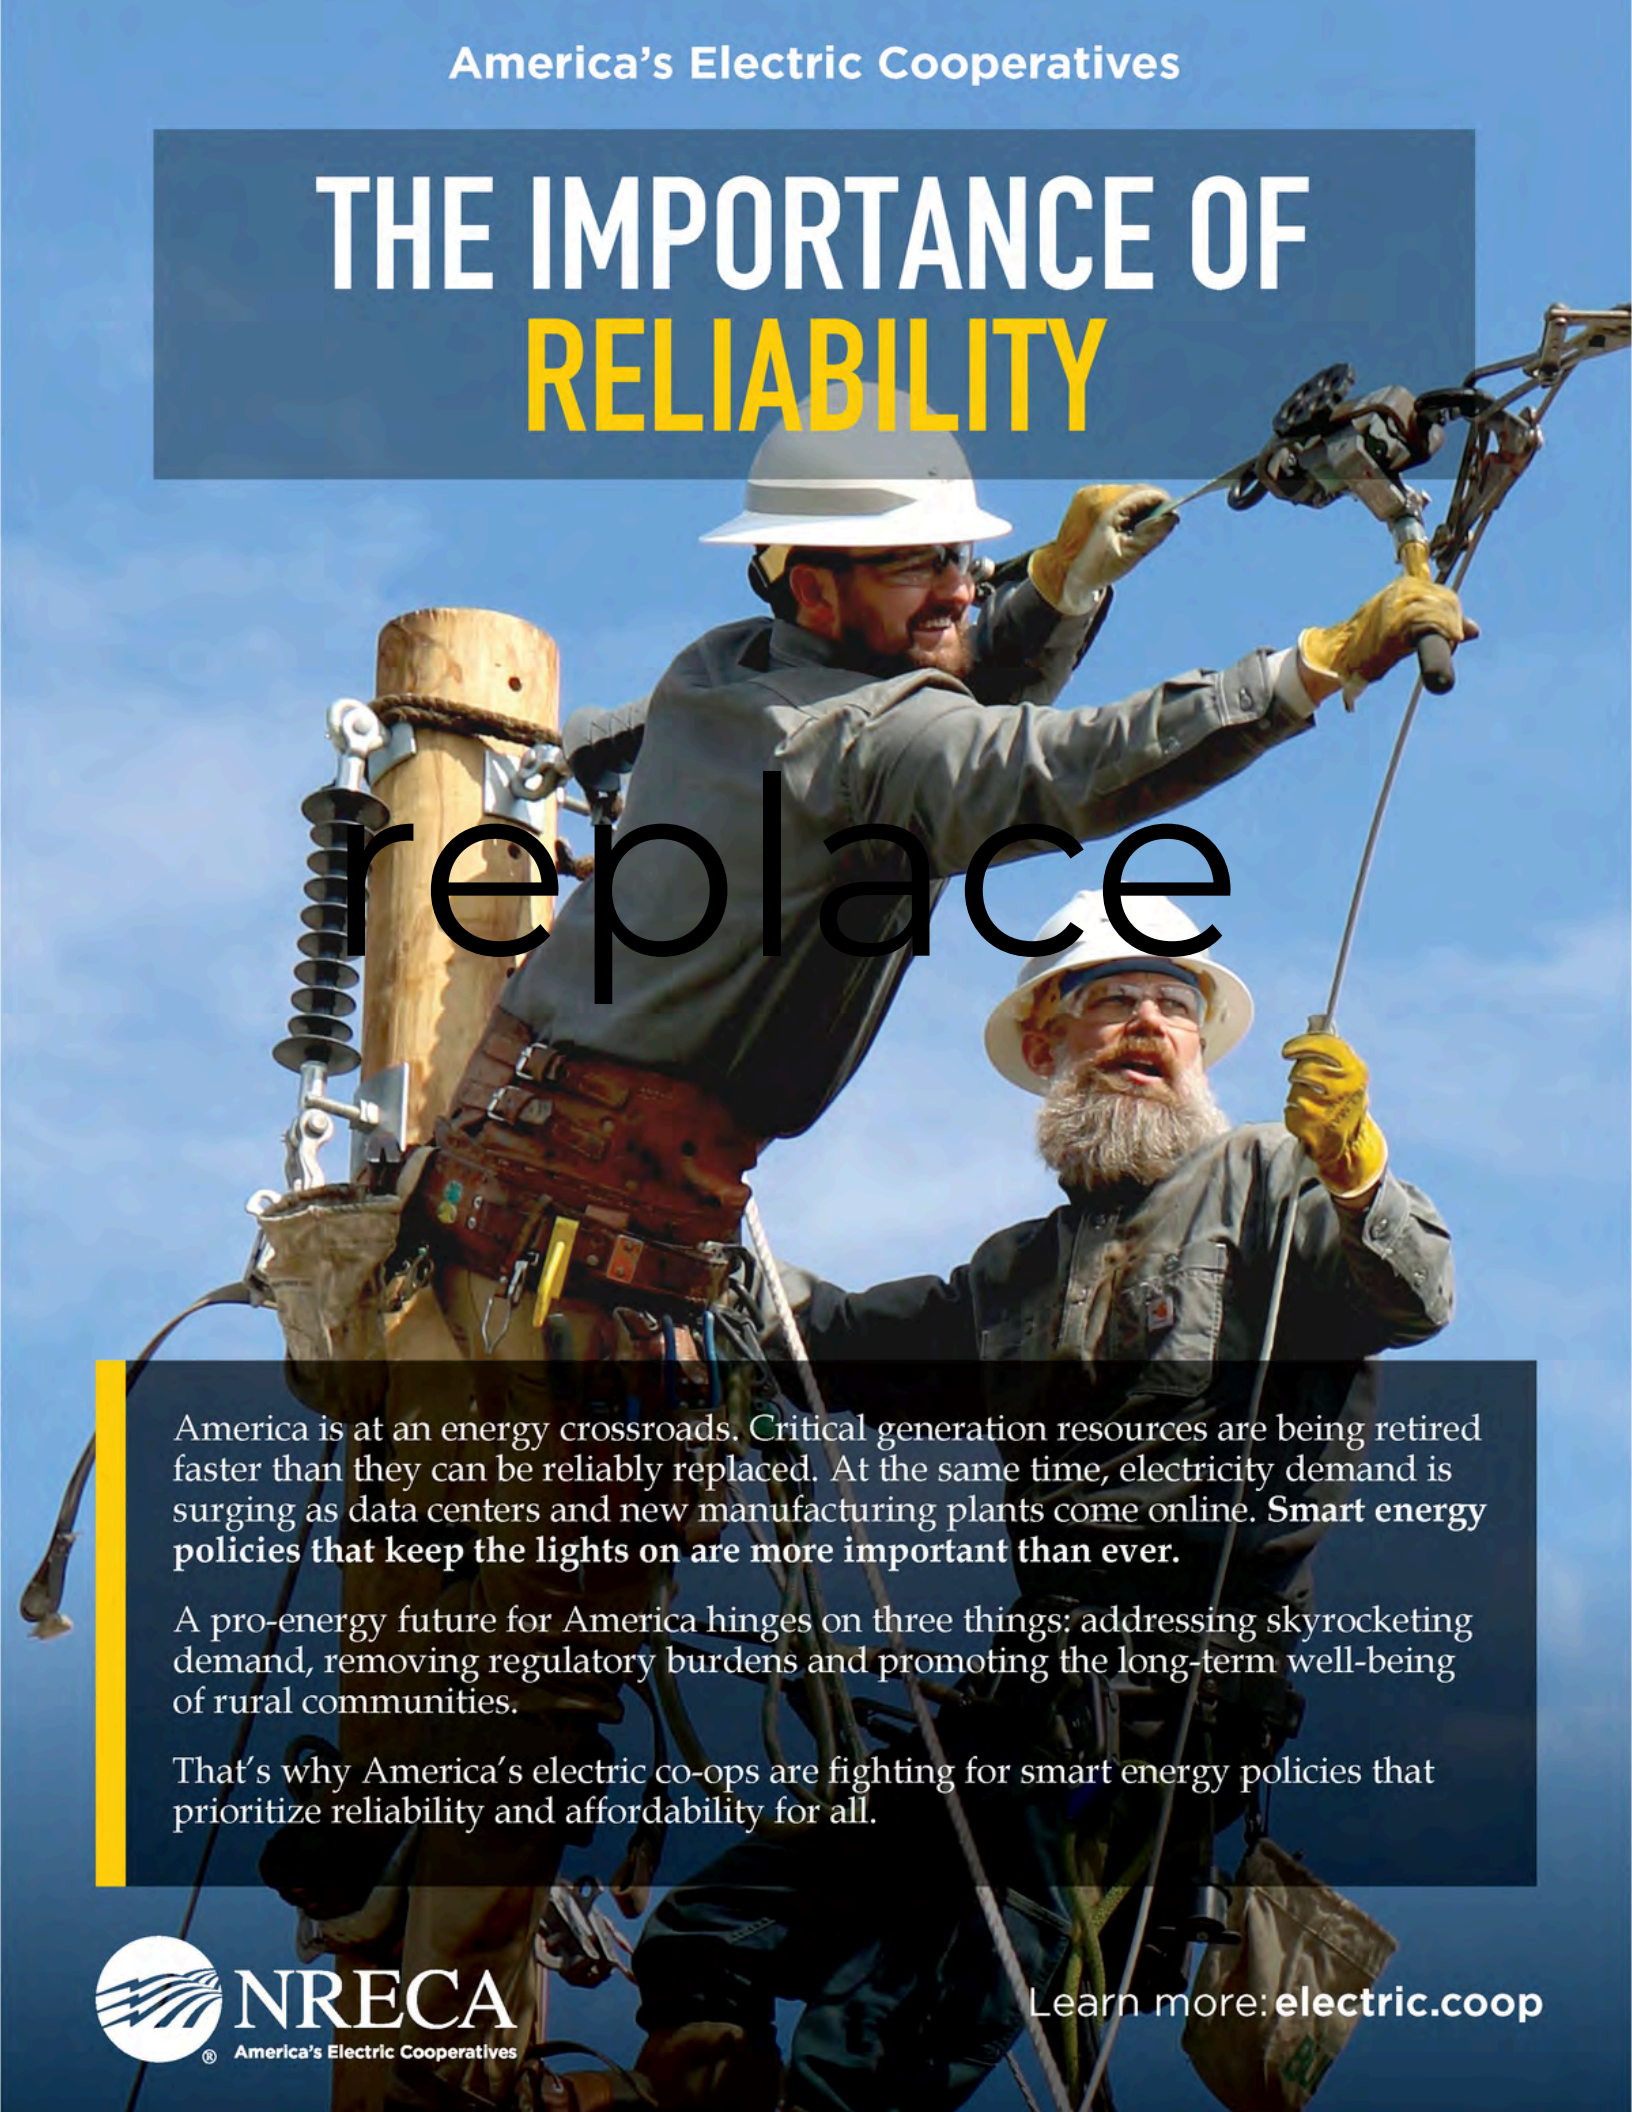

Dr. David Patton is President of Potomac Economics and has nearly 30 years of experience as an energy economist providing expert advice, analysis and testimony to clients in the electricity and natural gas industries. Dr. Patton's areas of expertise include market design and monitoring, merger and other market power analysis, transmission pricing, asset valuation, and congestion management.

Rich Heidorn Jr. is a former reporter and editor for The Philadelphia Inquirer, where he began covering the electric industry as Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware introduced competition in the late 1990s. His coverage won the National Press Foundation's 1998 award for energy reporting. He later headed a Houston-based startup that produced hourly power indexes and worked as an energy analyst for Bloomberg Government. In between, he worked for eight years in the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission's Office of Enforcement.

America's Electric Cooperatives

THE IMPORTANCE OF RELIABILITY

America is at an energy crossroads. Critical generation resources are being retired faster than they can be reliably replaced. At the same time, electricity demand is surging as data centers and new manufacturing plants come online. Smart energy policies that keep the lights on are more important than ever.

A pro-energy future for America hinges on three things: addressing skyrocketing demand, removing regulatory burdens and promoting the long-term well-being of rural communities.

That's why America's electric co-ops are fighting for smart energy policies that prioritize reliability and affordability for all.

2:15 PM - 3:25 PM: CONCURRENT SESSIONS

Concurrent 2A: FERC Practice and Procedure: Perspectives from FERC Staff
Salons 5-7

FERC staff share experience-based tips on procedural requirements, pleadings, pre-filing meetings, and working with ALJs. This interactive session will offer firsthand tips and best practices for practitioners appearing before FERC. Note: No specifics of pending FERC proceedings will be discussed at this panel.

- Paige Espy, Managing Attorney, Office of the General Counsel, FERC
- Catherine Fischl Warren, Supervisory Trial Attorney, Office of Administrative Litigation, FERC
- Kaleb Lockwood, Deputy Associate General Counsel, Office of the General Counsel, FERC
- Douglas Roe, Branch Chief, Office of Energy Market Regulation-East, FERC
- Karin L. Larson (Moderator), Shareholder, Wright & Talisman P.C.

Concurrent 2B: Bridging the Border: Emerging Issues in Energy Insecurity and Digital Infrastructure Development in the U.S. and Canada
Studio D

This panel will compare how the U.S. and Canada are responding to energy insecurity, affordability, and reliability challenges, including in response to the growing electricity demands of digital infrastructure and data center development. The discussion will explore ratemaking, cost allocation, customer protection, and how different regulatory and market structures between jurisdictions influence decisions about system expansion and investment. Attendees will gain practical insights into emerging legal and regulatory issues and cross-border lessons for policymakers and regulators.

- Strahan McCarten, SVP, Product & Strategy, eStruxture Data Centers
- Ari Peskoe, Director, Electricity Law Initiative, Harvard Law School Environmental and Energy Law Program
- Dr. Vivek Shastry, Senior Research Associate, Center on Global Energy Policy, Columbia University
- Katie Slipp, Partner, Blake, Cassels & Graydon LLP
- Meghan Anderson (Moderator), Senior Legal Counsel, Alberta Utilities Commission

Concurrent 2C: Energy and Transmission Development: Where Do Tribes Fit In?
Studio E

This session will explore the opportunities and barriers to Tribal participation in energy and transmission development, including FERC's Order No. 1920 and the relationship between Tribal consultation laws and federal energy regulation.

- Jonathan E. Canis, General Counsel, Oceti Sakowin Power Authority
- Jason Carrizosa, President, SVFM Services LLC
- Ellen H. Grover, Partner, Best Best & Krieger LLP
- Brant Johnson, Senior Vice President, Development, Grid United
- Hon. Suedeen G. Kelly (Moderator), Partner, Jenner & Block LLP

3:25 PM - 4:15 PM: BREAK & MEETUPS

Energy Professionals and In-House Counsel Coalition Meetup - Location: Studio F

4:15 PM - 5:25 PM: CONCURRENT SESSIONS

Concurrent 3A: Perspectives on Post-Chevron Judicial Review: Has Loper Bright Changed the Game...or Not?

Salons 5-7

In June 2024, the Supreme Court issued its ruling in Loper Bright v. Raimondo, overturning the 40-year-old Chevron deference doctrine. This panel will discuss how federal agencies have fared on judicial review of orders since Loper Bright was decided, what trends can be discerned when it comes to the relationship of the three branches of government, and what all of this may mean for some of the significant energy policy challenges the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission will be looking to address going forward.

- Jared B. Fish, Senior Appellate Attorney, Solicitor's Office, FERC
- Michelle Kallen, Partner, Steptoe LLP
- Molly K. Suda, Deputy General Counsel, Duke Energy Corp.
- Misha Tseytlin, Partner, Head of Supreme Court and Appellate Practice, Troutman Pepper Locke LLP
- Donna M. Byrne (Moderator), Partner, Troutman Pepper Locke LLP

Concurrent 3B: Ethical Use of AI in Energy Practice

Studio D

Artificial intelligence is rapidly becoming part of everyday legal practice—but the ethical rules governing lawyers have not changed. This program examines the ethical issues energy lawyers need to consider when using generative AI in regulatory, transactional, litigation, enforcement, and advisory work. The program will use practical examples drawn from energy practice to identify where AI can create ethical pitfalls and how lawyers can use these tools responsibly without sacrificing their professional obligations.

- Carolyn Elefant, AI in Law Expert, Law Offices of Carolyn Elefant

Concurrent 3C: A Lifetime of Energy Law: Now What? Perspectives on Retirement

Studio E

Many EBA members are approaching retirement in the near term and wrestling with not only when to retire but what to do in retirement, particularly if they want to remain active professionally or start new careers. Join us for a fireside chat in which our panelists will share their interesting retirement experiences and provide a wide range of guidance.

- Hon. Joseph T. Kelliher, Principal, Joseph Kelliher Consulting, (Retired Executive Vice President-Federal Regulatory Affairs, NextEra Energy, and a former FERC Chairman)
- Leslie Lawner, Retired Attorney / Teacher, (FERC Office of General Counsel, Office of Solicitor, and Office of Commissioner Michael Naeve, Enron Capital & Trade Resources, and Sidney Gutierrez Middle School)
- Jane Lewis-Raymond, Principal, Hilltop Strategies (Retired Attorney, Parker Poe, Piedmont Natural Gas)
- Richard Meyer, Retired Attorney, (SVP and General Counsel NRECA, USX Delhi Group/Texas Oil & Gas, Assistant GC, FERC and Former EBA President)
- Mark R. Haskell (Moderator), Partner, Blank Rome LLP

Concurrent 4A: AI as a Grid-Enhancing Technology – Opportunities and Risks
Salons 1-3

This panel will explore the promise and risks of using artificial intelligence for utility operations, such as system planning, wildfire prevention, and maintenance and inspections, and how industry members at the cutting edge are maximizing opportunity while mitigating risk.

- Andrew Abranches, Vice President, Wildfire Mitigation, Pacific Gas & Electric Company
- Allison Reed Morgan, Managing Director of Security and Resilience, Edison Electric Institute
- Darrell Moore, Director of Reliability Risk Management, North American Electric Reliability Corporation
- Laurie Edelstein (Moderator), Partner and Co-Chair of Jenner's Energy Practice, Jenner & Block LLP

Concurrent 4B: Powering the AI Boom: The Interplay Between Data Centers and Natural Gas Pipelines

Salons 5-7

The explosive growth of AI and cloud computing has made data centers the largest new source of electricity demand, and natural gas is increasingly the fuel of choice to power them—whether through the grid, behind-the-meter generation, or co-located plants. This panel brings together practitioners representing pipeline operators, power generation developers, data center developers, and lenders to examine the commercial and legal fault lines where these industries meet: firm transportation and supply agreements, capacity constraints and pipeline expansion, interconnection, siting and permitting, jurisdictional questions, and the allocation of risk between parties operating on very different timelines. The discussion will highlight deal structures, negotiation pressure points, and emerging solutions.

Women in Energy Lunch: A Conversation With Noha Sidhom and Julia English

Salon 4

The Energy Forum will conclude with the Women in Energy Lunch sponsored by McGuireWoods LLP, an annual event that recognizes prominent women in the energy law community. Julia English (Partner, McGuireWoods) will lead a fireside chat with Noha Sidhom (CIO and Founder, Viribus Fund).

Noha Sidhom is the Chief Investment Officer and founder of Viribus Fund and Executive Director of the Energy Trading Institute. She has spent her career at the intersection of energy markets, investing, law, and public policy. Prior to founding Viribus, Noha served as CEO of TPC Energy Fund and previously practiced energy law at a private firm and served as an Attorney Advisor at the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission.

Julia English (Partner, McGuireWoods LLP). Julia represents electric generation and transmission owners, developers, traders, financial institutions, investors, and investor-owned utilities in regulatory, transactional, and compliance matters involving the U.S. Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC), the U.S. Department of Energy (DOE), the Department of State (import/export proceedings) and state regulatory commissions. Julia is a longtime member of the EBA, was the organization's 2020-2021 President, and was a founding sponsor of the Women in Energy Lunch.

Paul E. Nordstrom Service Award

The Nordstrom Award was created in memory of Paul Nordstrom, a past President of the Energy Bar Association and motivating force in the organization of the Charitable Foundation of the EBA. The Award honors exemplary long-term service or significant public service by a current or past member to the community through participation in the EBA, CFEBA, or the FELJ. The EBA presents the 2026 Paul E. Nordstrom Award to Randall (Randy) S. Rich.

Randy is the Chair of EBA's Senior Lawyers Council (SLC) and has served on a multitude of EBA committees and leadership roles across his decades as a member. Randy has used his current leadership of the Senior Lawyers Council to create meaningful intergenerational connections within the energy bar, championing joint events and panels between the SLC and Young Lawyers Council (YLC). One nominator remarked "it is clear Randy takes pride in being part of the EBA and is genuinely invested in helping others feel welcome." Beyond his contributions to the energy bar, Randy has demonstrated exemplary community service through his leadership of Pierce Atwood's pro bono committee in Washington, D.C,, and personal involvement supporting local school activities and assistance programs.

PIERCE ATWOOD LLP

Rising Star in Energy Award

The Rising Star in Energy Award is given to a member in recognition of their outstanding contributions to the EBA, CFEBA, and/or FELJ early in their careers. Recipients must have no more than 10 years of practice as an attorney or energy professional, have been EBA members for at least two years, and have demonstrated a substantial commitment to energy law, EBA's mission, and its core values. The EBA presents the 2026 Rising Star in Energy Award to Lauren Caliendo.

Lauren has served in several Board positions for the Rocky Mountain Chapter, and is its immediate past president. She has been instrumental in growing an inclusive and engaged community within the energy sector, recruited many regional peers to become EBA members through planning local events, and is committed to ensuring a wide range of perspectives within the chapter. Lauren is also an active member of the Colorado Women's Bar Association, offering structured mentorship to women entering the legal field, while also playing a significant mentorship role at her firm. This spring, Lauren also served on the CFEBA Board and Gala Committee, playing a key role in making the 2026 Gala a fundraising success!

State and Provincial Regulatory Practitioner

The State/Provincial Regulatory Practitioner Award recognizes the impact of EBA members who represent clients before U.S. state or Canadian provincial regulatory agencies, whose advocacy has produced significant results or recognition, and made substantial contributions to the advancement of energy law. The EBA presents the 2026 State/Provincial Regulatory Practitioner Award posthumously to James (Jim) Guy, who passed away on January 21, 2026.

Jim was a two-time president of the Southern Chapter of EBA, with a career of over 30 years representing electric cooperatives before state regulatory and legislative bodies across the Virginia, Maryland, and Delaware region. His nominator stated he "was a tireless worker in advancing and representing the interests of his electric cooperative clients, both in regulatory and legislative forums. His leadership outside of his energy work reflects a wide commitment to the rule of law and advancing the professionalism of all attorneys." Jim was a steadfast, admirable member of the Southern Chapter and electric community, and is dearly missed by his peers.
